Chartered Accountants

Chartered Accountants are experts on the latest business and tax issues and are committed to on going professional education.

Engaging a Chartered Accountant is a smart investment and your assurance of quality and expertise. Getting the right advice can mean the difference between success and failure.

Anyone can call themselves an accountant and they do not need to have any accounting qualifications, but only a Chartered Accountant is:

- Qualified & trained for a minimum of seven years to achieve this professional qualification
- Required to undertake mandatory professional development training
- Bound by a code of ethics and is required to adhere to professional standards
- Subject to disciplinary procedures
- Subject to review of their professional practice where they offer services to the public
- Required to have Professional Indemnity Insurance

Referrals

Your referral is in safe hands

Referrals are the cornerstone of any service business. This firm relies on satisfied clients as the primary source of new business, and your referrals are both welcome and most sincerely appreciated!

Absolute Confidentiality

Since your referrals are generally individuals you are well acquainted with, you may have some concern that your business matters will be discussed with the new clients that you refer.

This office guarantees the confidentiality of client information. Your personal, financial and tax matters will not be shared with anyone else.

Free Consultation

We strive to provide the best accounting services possible. To do so we offer your referral a free, no obligation half hour initial appointment to discuss their business, accounting and tax needs.

An expression of Confidence

Many satisfied clients have referred friends, extended family and business associates to our services. We believe that a personal recommendation carries far more weight than an anonymous flier or an advertisement in the paper. To recognise your support, we have devised a referral plan to thank you.

No matter who you refer, rest assured that their individual tax needs will be handled in the same professional manner as yours have been.

Your Referral ... Your Reward

One Referral
$ 100

Our referral system is a simple and easy- you refer us to a new client resulting in a bill for the preparation of accounts, tax returns or any other services and we reduce your accounting and tax bill - it's that easy.

Two Referrals
$ 200

For every new client that you recommend to us, resulting in a bill, we will give you a one off $100 discount on your next bill. If you refer two new clients we will give you a one off $200 discount on your next bill - it all adds up.

Three Referrals
$ 300
